BOSTON, FEBRUARY 18.

IN the Debates of the General Aſſembly at New-York on the 25th of January laſt, Robert R. Livingſton, Eſq; appearing in the Aſſembly Chamber, and producing an Indenture of his being elected, and returned a Repreſentative for the Manor of Livingſton; and the ſame being read, Mr. Speaker aſked, Whether two Members ſhould wait upon one of the Commiſſioners appointed to qualify the Repreſentatives to ſerve in this preſent General Aſſembly, and ſee Mr. Livingſton qualified. A Motion was then made, Whether the Excluſion of any Officer under the Crown, or other Perſons (not diſqualified by Law) from Seats in this Houſe, by a bare Reſolve of the Houſe, will not be a high Invaſion of the fundamental Rights of our Conſtituents in the Freedom of Elections, an Abridgment of the Authority of the other Branches of the Legiſlature, ſubverſive of our happy Conſtitution, and tending to the Erection of a Republic in this Colony.---Debates aroſe, but finally the Queſtion was put, Whether two Members ſhould wait upon one of the Commiſſioners appointed to qualify the Repreſentatives to ſerve in this preſent General Aſſembly, and ſee Mr. Livingſton qualified? Which paſſed in the Negative, 15 to 7. And then a Reſolve paſſed, That the Excluſion of the Judges of the Supreme Court from their Seats, by a Reſolve of the Houſe, will not be an Invaſion of the fundamental Rights of the People in the Freedom of their Elections, nor an Abridgment of the Authority of the other Branches of the Legiſlature; is not ſubverſive of our happy Conſtitution, nor tending to the Erection of a Republic in this Colony; but an Exertion of that Right which the Conſtitution has lodged in the Repreſentatives of the People; 15 for the Reſolve, 7 againſt it.

FEBRUARY 25. We hear from Bridgwater, that ſome Time ſince died there a Man, who had lived in that Town, in a married State, with one Woman, in one Houſe, ſixty Years, always kept a large Family, and there never was a Birth or a Death in the Houſe in all that Time.

MARCH 14. The Beaver Man of War bound from Halifax to this Place, with Naval Stores, is thought to be loſt.

MARCH 25. At a General Council holden at the Council-Chamber, by Adjournment, laſt Thurſday, his Excellency the Governor was pleaſed to nominate the Honourable Benjamin Lynde, Eſq; Chief-Juſtice of the Superior Court of Judicature for this Province. And Foſter Hutchinſon, Eſq; to be a Juſtice of ſaid Court. Samuel Quincy, Eſq; to be Solicitor-General; alſo a Juſtice of the Peace for the County of Suffolk. Joſiah Edſon, Eſq; to be a Juſtice of the Court of Common-Pleas for the County of Plymouth. To which Nominations his Majeſty's Council did adviſe and conſent.

By Letters from Hiſpaniola we learn, that Earthquakes ſtill frequently happen at Port-au-Prince; and that there is Water over the Land ſunk there by the late Earthquakes, ſufficient to Float a Veſſel of 500 Tons.

MARCH 28. Laſt Friday arrived here from Georgia, Oliver Whipple, Eſq; Collector of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the Port of St. Mary's in Eaſt-Florida.

APRIL 1. Laſt Thurſday Charotte Bourgatte, the noted French Boy, was ſet in the Pillory for Perjury; and on Saturday he received twenty-five Stripes at the public Whipping Poſt.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman of Character in London, dated December 24, 1770.

"I have the Pleaſure to inform you that the Project, which has been ſtrongly urged by the Enemies of your Province to alter your Charter, is now wholly laid aſide. It is juſtly conſidered as a Compact between the King and People, which cannot be vacated without the Conſent of both Parties."

APRIL 8. It is ſaid that Admiral Montague is coming out on this Station, in the Captain Man of War, of 64 Guns.

Several Letters from London mention, that the Talk of War had almoſt ſubſided, and that all the Preſs-Warrants were recalled; but that the People in general were very diſſatisfied with the late Agreement with Spain, though there was a Majority of One Hundred and Thirty-eight in the Houſe of Commons for accepting it as a full Satisfaction for the Injury received. Alſo that a Pardon was made out, and may be ſhortly expected for the famous 'ſquire Richardſon, now confined here, being ſometime ſince convicted for the Murder of young Sneider; and one Letter mentions that he is to have a Penſion granted him for his Sufferings on that Account.

We do not learn that any Thing had yet been done in Parliament relative to American Affairs; or that there was like to be; the Miniſtry it is ſaid being now fully convinced of many Miſrepreſentations of Facts from this Side the Water, by the Examination of ſome Gentlemen of Credit lately arrived from hence, whoſe Veracity could be relied on.

The Boltſprit of a large Ship, ſuppoſed to belong to a Man of War, was lately ſeen by a Veſſel on George's Bank, which is an additional Circumſtance of the Loſs of the Beaver from Halifax.

Monday laſt were depoſited in a Tomb under King's Chapel, the Remains of the Honourable Lieutenant-General Shirley, formerly Governor of this Province, and lately of the Bahama-Iſlands; the Funeral Proceſſion was from the Houſe of John Erving, jun. Eſq; the ancient and honourable Artillery Company, commanded by Captain Heath, attended and marched in Funeral Proceſſion before the Corps, as alſo the Officers of the Regiment of Militia of this Town in their Regimentals, with the uſual Mourning of Black Crape: On the Coffin were two Swords placed ſaltier wiſe; the Pall was ſupported by his Excellency the Governor, his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, two of the Honourable Judges of the Superior Court, and two of the Honourable his Majeſty's Council; the Relatives, and a Number of Gentlemen and Ladies following in Proceſſion, and a great Number of Coaches and Chariots: The Corps being carried into the Chapel, a Sermon ſuitable to the Occaſion was preached by the Reverend Dr. Caner, to great Acceptance, from thoſe Words in Acts, xiii, 36. For David, after he had ſerved his own Generation, by the Will of God, fell on Sleep, and was laid unto his Fathers, and ſaw Corruption. After the Corps was interred, and the Funeral Service ended, the Military Company fired three Volleys, and during the Proceſſion, a Detachment of the Train of Artillery, led by Lieutenant Sellon, being marched to a proper Place, fired as many Minute Guns as the deceaſed had lived Years, being Seventy-ſix.

It is with Pleaſure we can inform our Readers, that the good People of this Province are ſo far re-inſtated in the Royal Favour and Confidence, as that they may now have the Honour of re-exciting that very Army, a Part of which, in Conjunction with a Squadron of his Majeſty's Ships, not long ſince inveſted our Metropolis. But whether theſe intended Recruits are to ſignalize their Loyalty and Valour in the Streets of Boſton, in St. George's-Fields, or in fighting the Spaniards, or all theſe in Rotation, will, in Concert with the -------, very probably depend on the conſummate Policy and inſcrutable Sagacity of my Lord of Hillſborough!

April the 4th, the Speaker communicated to the Houſe a Letter from Mr. Agent Franklin, dated London, December 24, 1770, from which we have the Pleaſure to inform our Readers, that the Deſigns of our Enemies to curtail our Charter, with which we have been ſo hardly threatened, was laid aſide.

NEW-LONDON, (Connecticut) MARCH 29.

His Honour the Governor has iſſued a Proclamation, appointing Thurſday the 18th of April next for a general Faſt in this Colony.

NEWPORT, (Rhode-Iſland) MARCH 18.

On Saturday Morning, the 16th Inſtant, departed this Life, after a long and lingering Illneſs, in the 40th Year of his Age, the Rev. Mr. Marmaduke Browne, Miniſter of Trinity-Church in this Place, moſt ſincerely and deſervedly lamented by his Congregation, and all who had the Pleaſure of his Acquaintance.

MARCH 25. On Thurſday Afternoon laſt, the Remains of the Rev. Mr. Marmaduke Browne, were attended to Trinity-Church, where an excellent and moſt pathetic Diſcourſe was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Biſſett, to a very crowded Audience, from Pſalm 90th, 12th Verſe, "So teach us to Number our Days, that we may apply our Hearts unto Wiſdom;" after which the Funeral Solemnity was cloſed by the Rev. Mr. Uſher, of Briſtol. The Tears of his bereaved Flock on this mournful Occaſion, manifeſted the juſt Senſe they entertained of the Worth of their deceaſed Paſtor, and their own inexpreſſible Loſs.

NEW-YORK, APRIL 1.

Captain Harvey from Grenada, on the 7th of March laſt, ſaw a Man of War, that had loſt her Top-maſts, bearing away for Bermuda, ſuppoſed to be the Beaver.

A Gentleman at Santa-Croix, writes his Friend here, that there has been lately diſcovered on that Iſland, a Gold Mine, the richeſt in Appearance ever known; it is not difficult to work, and has yielded from five to ten per Cent. which is thought immenſe. A Party of Soldiers have taken Poſſeſſion of the Gentleman's Plantation where the Mine was found, all Gold Mines being the King's Property.

BURLINGTON, (New-Jerſey) MARCH 27.

His Excellency Governor Franklin has received his Majeſty's Diſallowance of an Act of Aſſembly, paſſed in New-Jerſey in the Year 1765, intitled, "An Act for regulating the Practice of the Law, and other Purpoſes therein mentioned."

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 11.

The following is the Subſtance of ſeveral Letters from London:

JANUARY 23. "On the Reppрt of our Differences with Spain being entirely ſettled, Eaſt-India Stock got up from 180 to 225; Bank Stock from 133 to 138; three per Cent. conſolidated Annuities from 76 to 86; and all other Stocks in Proportion. The Parliament met Yeſterday, when Lord North declared in the Houſe, that the Affair of Falkland's-Iſland, was amicably made up; whether this will have a farther Effect upon the Stocks (they being now almoſt as high as before the War was talked of) or not, I cannot ſay; but this I can ſay with Certainty, that the Convention is generally diſliked, and believed at the ſame Time, by moſt People, that it will not be laſting."

JANUARY 27. "The popular Railings againſt Adminiſtration ſtill continue violent; and the Accommodation of the Affair of Falkland's-Iſland with the Court of Madrid, upon Terms generally eſteemed diſhonourable to the Nation, greatly increaſes the Clamour."

Laſt Saturday Night, about twelve o'Clock, a Fire broke out in the Houſe of Mr. Thomas Rogers, in Front-ſtreet, which was moſtly conſumed, and two other Houſes adjoining greatly damaged. The Fire was firſt diſcovered at the back Part of the Houſe, and preſently communicated to the Room where Mr. Rogers ſlept, who periſhed in the Flames. Mrs. Baxter, an aged Woman, who lay in an upper Room, was ſuffocated with Smoke, and died before ſhe could be got out; two of Mrs. Rogers's Grand-Children in the ſame Room with her, were taken out alive, by the Reſolution and Activity of a Sailor, after Part of the Roof had fallen in; but they were ſo far overcome by the Smoke, and playing of the Engines, that they are ſince dead. Mrs. Rogers, Mr. Baxter, a young Man, and a Negro Woman, eſcaped with great Difficulty. Providentially there was no Wind, or the Conſequences muſt have been fatal to the Houſes in that Neighbourhood.

NEWBERN, (North-Carolina) MARCH 15.

On Monday laſt a ſpecial Court of Oyer and Terminer was held here for this Diſtrict, when a very reſpectable Grand-Jury, ſummoned from the ſeveral Counties of the Diſtrict, appeared, and were empannelled and ſworn; to whom were preferred a great Number of Bills of Indictment againſt the People called Regulators, ſixty-one of which they found, and then made the following Preſentment.

The Preſentment of the Grand-Jury of the Diſtrict of Newbern.

"WHEREAS a Number of unthinking and deluded People, Inhabitants of the County of Orange, and of the neighbouring Counties in this Province, under the Influence and Direction of ſeveral wicked, ſeditious, evil deſigning and diſaffected Perſons, have aſſumed to themſelves the Title of Regulators, and in open Defiance of the Laws of the Land, in great Numbers, under Arms, aſſembled together, violently reſiſted, inſulted and beat the Sheriffs and other Officers in the Execution of their Office, and expreſsly refuſed to pay their Shares of the public Taxes laid by the General Aſſembly of the Province for the Support of Government, and at the laſt Superior Court of Juſtice held for the Diſtrict of Hillſborough, in the Month of September laſt, aſſembled together in a riotous and tumultuous Manner, barbarouſly inſulted and broke up that Court, cruelly beating and wounding the Officers thereof, deſtroying and pillaging the Houſes of ſuch Perſons as were obnoxious to their Ring-Leaders, and have lately aſſembled themſelves in great Numbers, armed and arrayed in warlike Manner, and publicly avowing their Intention of marching to Newbern, and of carrying into Execution by Force their hoſtile Meaſures: We, the Grand-Jury of the Diſtrict of Newbern, being thoroughly ſenſible that Actions and Attempts ſo execrable and miſchievous (if permitted) and plain Uſurpations of the Power of the Legiſlature, ſubſtituting in its Place, armed and lawleſs Force, and thereby leaving as a Prey to the ſtronger, the Lives, Liberties and Properties of our weaker Fellow-Subject; and that honeſt Induſtry can have an Exiſtence no longer than Property which is the Fruits of it, is ſecured by fixed and eſtabliſhed Laws; and we being fully and perfectly ſenſible of the great Happineſs and Liberty which the Subjects of this Province do enjoy under his Majeſty's gentle and benign Adminiſtration thereof, and that ſuch flagitious Crimes in Proportion to the Succeſs of them, muſt neceſſarily be ſubverſive of theſe invaluable Bleſſings, and introductive of Anarchy and Confuſion, do therefore preſent all ſuch wicked, ſeditious, evil deſigning Perſons, and diſaffected Perſons, who under the Title of Regulators have hitherto perpetrated, or attempted to perpetrate, or may hereafter attempt to perpetrate ſuch enormous Crimes or Offences, as being Enemies to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to the Liberty, Happineſs and Tranquility of his good and faithful Subjects of this Province.

GIVEN under our Hands and Seals, this 15th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord 1771.

As theſe infatuated and deluded People who call themſelves Regulators, are often gathering themſelves in Bodies, and ſtill oppoſe the civil Government of this Province, the Grand-Jury alſo drew up an Aſſociation, thereby ſolemnly engaging to ſupport Government againſt the Inſurgents, at the Riſk of their Lives and Fortunes, and to adopt every ſalutary Meaſure in their Power for reſtoring Peace and Tranquility, and enforcing the Execution of the Laws of the Province; which Aſſociation was immediately ſigned by his Excellency, the Preſident, the Gentlemen of his Majeſty's Council, the Speaker of the Houſe of Aſſembly, the Members of the Grand-Jury, and a great Number of others. And we have now the moſt ſanguine Expectations that ſuch ſpirited and deciſive Meaſures will be purſued as will reſtore Peace and good Government to Part of the Province that bids fair to be the moſt reſpectable County in it, could Government entirely root out a Set of the moſt extraordinary Men of any Kingdom or Nation in the World that ever met together to diſturb the Community of which they were Members.

LONDON, FEBRUARY 25.

LETTERS from Faro, of the 22d of January, mention there being a great deal of miſchief done on that coaſt. Upwards of 500 pipes of wine were driven on ſhore, marked C V. L. A. DC & GC, alſo ſome ſails and timber of a ſhip, which is ſuppoſed to be a Dutchman, a board being marked Anna, which is thought to be her name.

Extract of a Letter from Paris.

"The following German regiments having received no pay for two years, the officers pay in arrears fifteen months, the private men ſix months, made them at laſt requeſt their miſſion from the French ſervice, and they are now engaged the young Emperor; many of the private men his own ſubjects. Infantry Alſace; three battalions Anhalt; two battalions L. Marck; two battalions Royal Swedois; two battalions Naſſau; and one battalion Royal Deux Ponts.

"The Swiſs troops are likewiſe in arrears; ſome regiments ſixteen months, others fourteen months, and have alſo obtained their diſcharge; the preſent ſtate of the French finances having rendered it abſolutely neceſſary.---Swiſs Guards four battalions, D'Erlach one battalion, Boccard one battalion, Peſſer one battalion, Caſtella one battalion, Walmer two battalions; Jenner; Dieſbach, Salliſ..courten, Lochman, Eptinghen. The Swiſs Guards have entered into the Imperial ſervice; the next four regiments are contracted to Holland; the next three to the Venetian ſtate; to Sardinia the two laſt regiments.

"The faithful Iriſh are miſerably circumſtanced; almoſt three years without cloathing; now wearing coats old enough to be put into breeches, and what remains of their coats ſcarcely ſufficient for that purpoſe. The Engliſh Eaſt-India company have very wiſely engaged them in their ſervice; the formal of their diſmiſſion is ſigned by the King, and to-morrow the general orders will be received in the different garriſons for their diſmiſſion, and the delivery of their arms. From penury and want in this ſervice, they will, from the Aſiatic ſervice, return to Ireland rich as Nabobs.-----Regiments; Clare one battalion, Buſkeley five battalions, Roſcommon one battalion, Berwick five battalions, Dillon one battalion."

Extract of a Letter from Paris, dated February 8.

"All the Parliaments are going to make reclamations. That of Rennes, more obliged than the others to ſympathize in the misfortunes it has occaſioned to that part of Paris, has already wrote to the King, but it is aſſured, that all theſe ſteps will be fruitleſs; that the annihilation of the Parliament is a thing reſolved on, and that there are already near fifty perſons pitched upon to compoſe the new Court of Juſtice, which the King intends to form here; thoſe who are to fill the poſts of preſidents a mortier is already nominated. Our King is as obſtinate as a certain perſon on your ſide of the water.

"As there have been hitherto no laws in this Kingdom, or at leaſt ſuch as we have, are ſo contradictory, that every one may avail himſelf of them on the moſt oppoſite pretenſions; the Chancellor is digeſting a new body of laws, framed as near as poſſible on the plan of the Frederician Code."

Letters from Paris, dated February 4, ſay, "The King has ſuppreſſed the ſeven Offices of Intendants of the Finances."

The following was tranſlated from the original Spaniſh.

I Gregoria Martinez do hereby certify, that this is a true inventory taken of the tackle and apparel of the boat taken from his Britannic Majeſty's ſloop of war called the Favourite, Capt. George Farmer, Commander, lying at Port Egmont, in Falkland Iſland, by order of his Excellency Don Fouſto de Buſtamante, Commodore of his Catholic Majeſty's ſquadron lying in the harbour of Port Egmont, which was delivered up to the ſaid Capt. Farmer, together with the rudder of the Favourite ſloop as aforeſaid; as alſo the boat, viz. the boat containing one maſt, one ſail, one awning iron, one rudder and tiller, &c.

The above were delivered up on the day of at Port Egmont, in the preſence of Capt. Tenorio Fernandes, and Juan Palomeque, and have granted my certificate of the ſame.

GREGORIA MARTINEZ, Secretary and Interpreter.

It is ſaid, that a picture of a very amiable Princeſs has been recently imported for the approbation of his R----l H----ſs the D------e of G------r; and that, ſhould a marriage be the conſequence, a foreign territory will be conferred upon the Fair, of which they will have the perpetual Sovereignty.

MARCH 1. Wedneſday the Earl of Halifax, by his Majeſty's command, preſented to the Upper Aſſembly a petition of Alexander Lenox, claiming the title of Earl Lenox, and the ſame we hear is referred to the Committee of Privileges.

The claim of the Sutherland Peerage is ordered to come on in the Houſe of Lords on Wedneſday next.

Yeſterday there was a great Court and Drawing-Room at St. James's, at which ſeveral of the Nobility and moſt of the foreign Miniſters were preſent; at the breaking up of which, her Majeſty paid a viſit to her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, at Carlton Houſe, where ſhe ſtayed for ſome time, and afterwards returned to the Queen's Palace.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. Earl Temple gave a grand entertainment to the Earl and Counteſs of Chatham, and a great number of Nobility, at his houſe in Pall Mall.

On Friday laſt his Excellency Charles O'Hara, Eſq; Governor of Senegambia, took leave of his Majeſty; and in a few days will ſet out for Deal, to embark for his government on board the Shelburne, Captain Spence.

Early on Wedneſday morning an expreſs arrived in town from Gibraltar, ſaid to be on affairs of the utmoſt conſequence.

A Warrant is ſigned by the Speaker for apprehending the Printers that did not attend on a written order being left at their houſes. They are ſtill, however, we are aſſured, determined to reſiſt, and will not attend unleſs compelled by ſuperior force.

We are informed, that Yeſterday the two Printers, who have neglected to appear at the Bar of a great Aſſembly, according to orders, had agreed to attend their buſineſs as uſual; and that a Conſtable was at hand, who was inſtructed to ſeize any perſon who ſhould aſſault them in their ſhops, and to carry him before the proper Magiſtrates, who was determined to commit him; and that the Printers would each bring a ſeparate action againſt him for an aſſault.

Wedneſday the Lower Aſſembly went upon the Nullum Tempus Bill, the debates were long and intereſting, many ſpeeches being made both for and againſt the intended amendment; at nine o'clock a motion was made for the Preſident to quit the chair, and the Houſe to form itſelf into a Committee, but the previous queſtion being put the lobby was cleared, and they divided, when the non-amendment carried it by 9 votes; the numbers 164 to 155. As the majority were going into the Houſe again, a Gentleman, no Member, whoſe name was Hunt, mixed along with them and went in, but being almoſt immediately diſcovered, he was ordered into cuſtody, and the Houſe divided a ſecond time, when the numbers were as before; when the diviſion was over Mr. Hunt was called to the bar, and queſtioned why he came in? He anſwered, that he did it for no other reaſon than in hopes of getting into the gallery; he was then aſked, what members he knew? He replied, he was acquainted with ſeveral; among others, he was known by Mr. Dunning and Serjeant Glynn, and he ought to be known to the Preſident, for he had been his client upwards of twenty years. The Houſe conſidering his coming in as an act of inadvertency, more than any deſigned offence, he was ordered to be diſcharged, and then (it being half paſt eleven) the Houſe broke up.

The further proceedings on the Nullum Tempus Bill, are poſtponed for three months.

A certain witty Earl was lately offered the government of a neighbouring kingdom, which he repeatedly declined, with proper acknowledgements for the favour intended him; the Miniſter ſtill continuing to preſs it upon him moſt ſtrongly, and told him at laſt, that he muſt go there, as the nation was in a flame. That is the very reaſon, replied the Lord, that I will not go; for I'll be d—n'd if you ſhall burn me in your political conflagrations.

It is ſaid Mr. Potter, the meſſenger, will ſoon be qualified with the inveſtment of a lucrative employment, excluſive of his place as meſſenger.

According to advices received from the Levant, three provinces of Crim Tartary have revolted from the Grand Signior, and joined the Ruſſian army north of the Black Sea.

Extract of a letter from Cracow, dated January 28.

"The united troops under the marſhals Beitz and Czernichow made an attack the 13th inſt. at day-break under the ſuburbs of Caſimir, and afterwards on the city itſelf. The principal attack was however made againſt the aforeſaid ſuburbs and the gate of Grodsker; the fire was very hot, and laſted till noon. The confederates were repulſed three times with great loſs, and failed in their attempt of battering down the gates of Schuſter with their battle-axes. The Ruſſian Major Uſchakow was dangerouſly wounded, and Col. Oebſchlewitz, our commander, was wounded by a carabine. The Ruſſians had ſeven men killed, and twenty wounded. Although the two companies of Imperial guards fought with a bravery never to be ſufficiently extolled, their loſs was not the moſt inconſiderable. The confederates amounting to four thouſand, have pillaged the quarter of the Jews, where the damage ſuſtained is eſtimated at 300,000 ſilver florins of Poland."

A gentleman of veracity juſt arrived from France reports, that there is all the reaſon in the world to believe that a civil war will very ſhortly happen in this kingdom.

Private letters from France ſay, that it is hourly expected that the Duc d'Aiguillon will be declared miniſter.

They write from Briſtol and Liverpool, that ſince the confirmation of the Spaniſh convention being ſigned, a great number of merchant ſhips have been engaged to ſail with full cargoes to different ports in Europe and America.

It is reported, that authentic advice is received of the ſafe arrival of the Aurora, Capt. Lee, with the ſupervifors, at Bombay. It is ſaid they were becalmed for upwards of nine weeks, and afterwards drove into an iſland where they were almoſt famiſhed, after ſtaying there five months.

A conſiderable quantity of ſtores is ſhipping in the rivers for Nova-Scotia.

A few days ago was married William Weddell, of Newby, Eſq; Member of Parliament for Hull, to Miſs Ramſden, daughter of the late Sir John Ramſden, of Byram, Bart.

By letters from Senegal there is advice of the death of Joſeph Debatt, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor of Senegambia.

MARCH 2. The ſtate of the forts on the coaſt of Africa are now under the conſideration of a great aſſembly.

Yeſterday being the anniverſary of St. David's day, the tutelar Saint of Wales, the ſociety of Ancient Britons met at St. Bride's church, from whence they proceeded in carriages to St. James's, to pay their compliments to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, in the following order, viz. fifes playing, and colours flying; the city-officers and the marſhals on horſe-back; a ſtandard with the figure of St. David painted thereon, with a ſword in his hand; a man in armour, ſupporting a flag with the Prince of Wales's arms; a band of muſic; then the charity children two and two; followed by twenty-two carriages. His Royal Highneſs received them very graciouſly, and preſented the ſtewards (having firſt addreſſed them in a very genteel ſpeech) with a purſe of 100 guineas towards ſupporting the charity. They had all the honour of kiſſing his Royal Highneſs's hand. They then returned in the ſame order to St. Bridge's church, where a ſermon was preached on the occaſion, after which the company proceeded to the London tavern, where an elegant entertainment was provided according to annual cuſtom.

MARCH 5. A letter from Breſt mentions, that orders had juſt been received to unrig ſeveral capital ſhips of war, both there and at Rochfort; but the Toulon ſquadron is to be kept upon a reſpectable footing, while the Ruſſian fleets continue in the Mediterranean.

Four men of war of the line are ordered to accompany Admiral Montagu to North-America.

MARCH 9. The following is an authentic copy of the King of Spain's ratification of the late convention.

Tranſlation of his Catholic Majeſty's orders, ſignified by the Baliè Fray Don Julian de Arriaga, to Don Philip Ruez Puente, dated Pardo, 7th of February, 1771.

IT being agreed between the King and his Britannic Majeſty, by a CONVENTION ſigned at London, on the 22d of January laſt paſt, by the Prince of Maſerano and the Earl of Rochford, that the great Malouine, called by the Engliſh Falkland-Iſland, ſhould be immediately replaced, in the preciſe ſituation in which it was before it was evacuated by them on the 10th of June laſt year; I ſignify to you, by the King's order, that as ſoon as the perſon commiſſioned by the court of London ſhall preſent himſelf to you with this, you order the delivery of the Port de la Cruſada, or Egmont, and its fort and its dependencies, to be effected; as alſo that of all its artillery, ammunition, and effects, that were found there, belonging to his Britannic Majeſty and his ſubjects, according to the inventories ſigned by George Farmer and William Maltby, Eſqrs. on the 11th of July of the ſaid year, at the time of their quitting the ſame, of which I ſend you the incloſed copies, authenticated under my hand; and that as ſoon as the one and the other ſhall be effected, with the due formalities, you cauſe to retire immediately the officer, and other ſubjects of the King, which may be there. God preſerve you many years.

Pardo, 7th February, 1771. (Signed)
The Baliè Fray Don Julian de Arriaga.

To Don Philip Ruez Puente.

Although the above is only a copy of the order for reſtitution, yet it is the only inſtrument which the King of Spain has ſent to our court; and it has been accepted as a full ratification.

Whatever reports are propagated to the contrary, by the ſelf-intereſted or invidious, it may be depended on, that the Spaniards have abſolutely begun, and continue to reduce their military and marine forces to the ſtate in which they were before the proſpect of a diſpute with us. The miniſtry are truly ſenſible of this fact, and are at this time poſſeſſed of an exact ſtate of the reduction.

It is ſaid, that a certain patriotic orator is ſilenced.

Both Houſes of Parliament will, we hear, break up for the Eaſter holidays on Monday the 25th inſtant.

The impreſſing of ſeamen is entirely at an end in this city; and on Tueſday and Wedneſday laſt, near a hundred men were diſcharged from the 61ſt regiment: They were each allowed fourteen days pay and a half guinea.

When the alteration of the eſtabliſhment of the infantry takes place, which will be on the 26th inſtant, a regiment of foot will conſiſt of a Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, Major, 7 Captains, 12 Lieutenants, 8 Enſigns, one Quarter-Maſter, one Adjutant, a Chaplain, Surgeon, and one Mate, 20 Serjeants, 30 Corporals, 10 Drums, 2 Fifers, and 380 private men.

MARCH 14. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to confer the dignity of a Baronet of Great-Britain on Robert Harland, Eſq.

Laſt night the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford had the honour of a private conference with his Majeſty at the Queen's Palace, relative to the preſent ſtate of our maritime forces.

Orders were yeſterday ſent down to Spithead to Admiral Buckle, to ſend three men of war of his ſquadron to cruize between Uſhant and Scilly. And the ſame day an order was made, that a committee be appointed for better ſupplying his Majeſty's navy with timber.

Orders are given for the immediate coinage of 30,000l. in ſilver, to be ready for delivery the firſt of June.

Yeſterday at twelve o'clock the common cryer of this city, attended by the city marſhal and other officers read, at the royal exchange the proclamation for apprehending the two printers; after which according to orders ſeveral were ſtuck up on divers parts of the change.

The Houſe did not riſe till five o'clock yeſterday morning, and ſome of the members could not get away till ſix. They adjourned till this morning, when the printers of the ſix following papers are ordered to attend: The Morning Chronicle, The St. James's Chronicle, The London, The Whitehall, and General Evening Poſts, and The London Packet.

Yeſterday letters from ſeveral parts, by the Dutch Mail, confirm the account of the Dey of Tunis having declared war againſt the Danes. Some accounts add, that they have done it at the inſtigation of the Algerines, againſt whom the Danes made an unſucceſsful bombardment laſt ſummer.

WHITEHALL, February 25. The Ruſſian Miniſter deſires the public may be informed, that according to the laſt letters he has received from his Court, there is not (thank God) the leaſt appearance of any infectious diſtemper, either in Moſcow, Livonia, Eſtonia, Ingria, or in the adjacent provinces; and that the meaſures taken to prevent its being introduced into them, leave not the leaſt reaſon to apprehend, in future, any danger from it.

March 2. The King having been pleaſed to grant his royal licence to Robert Melville, Eſq; Captain General and Governor in Chief of his Majeſty's iſlands of Grenada, the Grenadines, St. Vincent, and Tobago, in America, to return to this kingdom; his Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint William Leybourne, Eſq; to be Captain General and Governor in Chief of thoſe iſlands, in the room of the ſaid Robert Melville, Eſq.

CORK, (Ireland) MARCH 11.

Captain James Donovan, of the ſhip Conception Bay, who arrived here laſt Saturday, ſpoke on the 28th of February laſt, 20 leagues to the eaſtward of the rock of Liſbon, with the ſhip Queen, John Harriſon, maſter, from South-Carolina, for London, who informed him that on Monday the 28th of January, in lat. 45, 40, N. long. 22, 54, W. he met with a violent gale of wind, which obliged him to cut away his main and mizen maſts, and after loſing which, with all his ſails, boats, &c. bore away for Liſbon.

NAPLES, January 22. We have advice of undoubted authority, that the Czarina has declared the Regufians enemies to her Crown, and that her Majeſty's ſhips have already taken ſome of theirs.

MARSEILLES, February 3. By letters from Conſtantinople, dated December 17, we learn, that a Ruſſian ſhip had ſeized in the Archipelago a piratical veſſel, on board of which were found ſixty bales of cloth, which had been taken from a French ſhip. Theſe letters add, that the Ruſſian Commandant had conſigned the bales of cloth to the French Vice Conſul of the iſle of Tino, and ordered that the piratical Captain, who is a native of the iſland of Zante, to be hanged.

PISA, February 4. An expreſs arrived here two days ago from Florence, with notice, that, in the night of the 28th of January, the church of the Carmelites was totally deſtroyed by fire. That church, which is one of the largeſt and beſt ornamented of any in Florence, had been ſhut up for three years, in order to make many reparations and very rich additional ornaments; theſe, with moſt of the fine paintings, have been deſtroyed, though no body as yet can account for the accident.

HAGUE, February 22. The accounts from Poland, particularly from Dantzick, are favourable about the plague, not only of its decreaſing by the ſeverity of the weather, but alſo in regard to the ſalutary meaſures taken to prevent its ſpreading.

CAIRO, November 22. Within theſe few days Haſſen Bey arrived in this city, bringing back with him only ſeventeen perſons out of fifteen hundred, which Mehemet Bey had left him, on appointing him Governor of Gedda, and the conquered countries. The following is all that we know hitherto of this revolution in his affairs. As ſoon as the old Scherif, who had been depoſed, was informed of the departure of Mehemet Bey for Egypt, he preſented himſelf before Mecca, from whence, at his approach, the new Scherif fled to Gedda. Having made himſelf maſter of that place without reſiſtance, he ſent word to Haſſan Bey, that he had taken poſſeſſion of it by virtue of a commiſſion from the Grand Seignior, and ordered him to continue to ſupply Mecca with proviſions, or to quit Gedda. This Haſſan Bey refuſing to do, the Scherif marched out againſt him with 1200 Arabs from Yemen. They fought four days together before Gedda; but Haſſan Bey ſeeing the Arabs then advancing with ſword and fire towards the caſtle into which he had retired, he took the reſolution of flying before they could cut off his retreat. It is aſſerted, that the Arabs have pillaged and murdered all who were of Aly Bey's party; but it is ſaid that Haſſan Bey, ſix days before their approach, had diſpatched for Suez four veſſels laden with coffee, on the account of Mehemet Bey, and that all the ſhipping, which were accuſtomed to make that paſſage in the next month, had ſailed from thence at the ſame time.

HERMANSTADT, (in Tranſilvania) January 25. The plague which at firſt appeared only in the neighbourhood of Cronſtadt, has lately penetrated into the diſtricts bordering upon this capital. This dreadful diſtemper has carried off all the inhabitants of Roſelen, a village occupied by the troops that form the line round Fogaraſch; and has communicated to ſome other places. A diſtemper alſo prevails among the horned cattle.

MADRID, January 29. They write from Cadiz, that ſome ſhips bound to America only wait for orders to ſet ſail. They have on board 100 pieces of cannon, 35,000 bombs, 15,000 cannon [illegible] and 10,000 muſkets, with large quantities of ammunition of all

PARIS, February 15. Some plans are talked of for the parliaments, and it is even aſſerted that the chief preſident has had a long conference with the King: Beſides, it is well known [illegible] of the exiled members are perſons highly eſteemed.

CHARLES-TOWN, MAY 7.

THE Honourable the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province are to meet here this Day, agreeable to their laſt Adjournment.
